

Annex I: Cases with amicus curiae involvement

Methodology

This annex provides an overview over all of the decisions of international courts and tribunals with amicus curiae involvement that were included in this dissertation. The term involvement was chosen to clarify that the annex does not include only cases where amici curiae were admitted to the proceedings by the court, but also cases where requests for participation were denied.¹

The list was last updated on 15 November 2016.

For each court, a separate database is provided, with four identical columns.

The first column depicts the year in which the judgment (or opinion, final order or decision) in the respective case was issued. Cases pending as of 15 November 2016 are marked as ‘Pend.’.

The second column depicts the case name and the final decision rendered for easy reference. Direct reference to the relevant decisions pertaining to amicus curiae were included where remotely accessible.²

The third column lists those who participated or sought to participate as amicus curiae. Where considered necessary, the following abbreviations are added behind the name to clarify the nature of the amicus curiae:

NGO	Non-governmental organization, i.e. any form of organization of a non-governmental character irrespective of the purpose of the organization
IO	Intergovernmental organization
Ind.	Individual

- 1 Cases where an investment arbitration tribunal chose to regulate amicus curiae participation in anticipation of possible requests, but then did not receive any such requests were not included but are mentioned throughout the dissertation where pertinent.
 - 2 Citations follow the respective court’s citation guidelines (which, in some cases, varied over the years). For purposes of overall coherence, deviations were made from the official citation mode with respect to the IACtHR.

The fourth column details if and how the amicus curiae submission was accepted. In the event of a joint submission, only the first-listed submitter is linked with an abbreviation. The following abbreviations are used:

A	Request for participation granted or brief admitted by the court or tribunal
A (NC)	WTO-specific: submission was admitted but it was held that it was of no use and hence not considered
A (NF)	Request for participation granted by the court or tribunal, but submission was not filed
An	Submission annexed by either or both parties
I	Participation invited by the court or tribunal
R	Request for participation rejected by the court or tribunal
R (An)	The court or tribunal subjected the admission of an amicus curiae brief to the parties' annexing of the amicus curiae brief and no party annexed the brief
U	Unknown
